

ENKHBAIGALI BYAMBASUREN

Director

National Development Institute of Mongolia (Mongolian Development Institute)

enkhbaigali@yahoo.com

Professor Enkhbaigali Byambasuren has worked for 15 years in higher and postgraduate education sector, 13 years in public services and 9 years in administrative position of public institutions.

She has educational background on management, public administration, economy, system theory and nonlinear dynamics. Her research specialization includes social identity, practice of management, export oriented economic policy, knowledge based economy, innovation technology and policy impacts on socio-economic life. Her Ph.D. degree is on public administration, knowledge economy policy in 2003 (interrelation of economy, social life and environment in the long run).

She has published more than 70 works in the fields of policy making, policy analysis, management, economics and social psychology. She has worked in many international organizations and projects as resource person, policy analyst, and researcher. She speaks Mongolian, Turkish, English and French.