

KANG JIA

Director General
Research Institute for Fiscal Science
Ministry of Finance, PRC
Tel. 88191029
mofjk@163.com

Prior to becoming Director General, Dr. Kang Jia served as Senior Research Fellow and Doctoral Supervisor of the Research Institute for Fiscal Science, Ministry of Finance.

He has a Ph.D. in Economics. He took advanced studies in the U.S. as a selected fellow of the Heinz Fellowship Program in 1988-89 at the University of Pittsburgh. He was a guest professor in a number of universities in China, namely: Renmin University, National Institute of Administration, Nankai University, Xiamen University, Tianjin University of Economics and Finance, Southwest University of Economics and Finance, and the Business School of Guangdong. He was an awardee of the Sun Yefang Economics prize.

Dr. Kang Jia participated in international and domestic research programs including researches on the state economic policy-making and published several books. In 2002-2007, he did economic consulting at the invitations of former premiers Zhu Rongji and Wen Jiabao, and the General Secretary of CPC Hu Jintao (thus considered as one of the “Advisory to the state leaders”).