

Professor POH KAM WONG

Director, NUS Entrepreneurship Centre

Professor, NUS Business School

PohKam@nus.edu.sg

Poh Kam Wong teaches entrepreneurship and innovation strategy with a special focus on Asia as Professor at the NUS Business School. He is also Professor (by courtesy) at the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy and the Faculty of Engineering at NUS.

He has published extensively in leading international refereed journals on entrepreneurship and innovation, including Organization Science, Information Systems Research, Research Policy, Journal of Business Venturing, Entrepreneurship Theory & Practice, Journal of Management, Scientometrics, IEEE Trans Engineering Management, Small Business Economics and World Development. He has consulted widely for international agencies such as the World Bank, OECD and Asian Development Bank, various government agencies in Singapore such as A*STAR, EDB, SPRING, NRF and IP Office of Singapore, and many private corporations in Asia.

In addition to his academic position, he is also concurrently the Director of NUS Entrepreneurship Centre, where he spearheads the university's experiential entrepreneurship education programs and oversees the NUS Enterprise Incubator which provides incubation space, seed funding, mentorship and network connections to early stage investors for start-ups by NUS students, professors and alumni. He initiated StartUp@Singapore, the largest annual business plan competition in Singapore, in 1999, as well as Grameen Creative Lab@NUS, an incubator for social impact-driven ventures in 2011. An entrepreneur who co-founded three companies prior to joining academia, he has been an active angel investor with investments in over a dozen high tech start-ups in Singapore, Silicon Valley, China and India. He is the founding chairman of Business Angel Network (Southeast Asia) and BAF Spectrum Pte Ltd, an angel investment fund co-invested in by the Singapore government. He was awarded the Public Administration Medal (Silver) by the Singapore Government in 2013 for his contribution to education in Singapore.

He obtained two BScs, an MSc. and a Ph.D. from MIT. He was a Fulbright Visiting Scholar at U.C. Berkeley and a visiting scholar at Stanford University.