

RAFAELITA M. ALDABA

Senior Research Fellow and Acting Vice President
Philippine Institute for Development Studies raldaba@mail.pids.gov.ph; fita.aldaba@gmail.com

Dr. R. Aldaba has extensive research experience on development issues with focus on economic integration, international trade, industrial policy, foreign direct investment, competition policy, and small and medium enterprises.

She has served as Principal Investigator in several research projects, including the PIDS-Economic Research Institute for ASEAN and East Asia country projects; PIDS-Department of Trade and Industry projects; Policies to Promote Competition in the Philippines and Enhance Productivity and Competitiveness by World Bank, ASEM Trust Fund, and PIDS; Tariff Framework for More Efficient Globally Competitive Philippine Economy by the Canadian International Development Agency, Philippine Tariff Commission and PIDS; and, Development Incentives Assessment Research Project by the US Agency for International Development and PIDS.

Some of her publications include, among others, The Impact of Trade Liberalization on Wage Skill Premium in the Philippines (2013); Twenty Years After Trade Liberalization: What Has Happened And Where Do We Go From Here? (2013); Getting Ready for the ASEAN Economic Community (AEC) 2015: Philippine Investment Liberalization and Facilitation (2013); and, Can Imports Discipline Collusive Firms? The Case of the Philippine Cement Industry (2008).

She earned her Bachelor's, Master's and Ph.D. in Economics from the University of the Philippines' School of Economics. She also took Advance Studies in International Economic Policy Research in Kiel Institute of World Economics in Germany.