

RADHICKA KAPOOR

Consultant

Indian Council for Research on International Economic Relations

radhicka.kapoor@gmail.com

Dr. Radhicka Kapoor has served as consultant in various international organizations such as World Bank (Washington) and International Labor Organization (Geneva) and with the Planning Commission of the Government of India prior to joining ICRIER in 2013.

She has done several researches and publications such as, among others, The Arithmetic of the Poverty-Growth-Inequality Triangle: Evidence from States of India; The Empirics of the Poverty-Growth-Inequality Triangle: Does High Initial Poverty Matter?-Evidence from Rural India; Inequality Matters (2013); Fiscal Policy and Macroeconomic Stability: New Evidence and Policy Implications(2010); and, Fiscal Policy and Macroeconomic Stability: Automatic Stabilizers Work, Always and Everywhere(2010).

She has two masteral degrees in Economics from the University of Cambridge and London School of Economics prior to earning her Ph.D. in Economics from LSE in 2011.