

TRAN KIM CHUNG

Vice President

Central Institute for Economic Management

trankimchung@mpi.gov.vn

trankimchungciem@yahoo.com.vn

Dr. Tran Kim Chung has been working with CIEM, a think tank in economic policies of Viet Nam since 1984 and has served in its various departments prior to becoming its Vice President. He has conducted many research projects, published many articles on economic structure, economic management, investment, cross – border trade, finance, land-housing and real estate market. He also served as a member of many Economic Line-Ministries Expert Groups; international groups on economic research, such as the Pacific Economic Cooperation Council, World Link Project, etc.

After earning his diploma in Post Graduate in Economics of Development from the Australian National University, Dr. Tran Kim Chung obtained his Master in Economics of Development from the University of Manchester and his PhD in Economics of Development from the Ho Chi Minh National Political Academy.