

GUANGYAO ZHU

Vice Minister

Ministry of Finance, People's Republic of China

Zhu Guangyao joined the People's Republic of China's Ministry of Finance in 1985 and became Vice Finance Minister in 2010. Prior to his current position, he served as Deputy Director General of the Department of Government Debt and Financial Affairs, Director General of the International Department, Executive Director of China to the World Bank Group and Assistant Minister of the Ministry of Finance.

As a staunch advocate for increasing China's engagement in international economic cooperation, Vice Minister Zhu has witnessed, engaged and actively promoted a number of major international economic cooperation events in recent years. For instance, he is often seen and heard at high-level economic conferences, including those of the Chiang Mai Initiative, China-U.S. Strategic and Economic Dialogue and the G20. He is on top of international macroeconomic policy coordination and economic negotiations in the MOF.
